ABOUT PEP SESSIONS AND PEP ARTICLES

When you sign up for a college or continuing education course, you pay for the course (Instructor’s Verbal Presentation) and course materials (textbooks) are generally paid separately. Fees for Dr. Smith’s PEP SESSIONS (Telephone Consultation to provide verbal education and instruction) include both, providing a discount on course materials, called PEP ARTICLES, whether in an article or e-book format. PEP Articles provide practical application education and instruction that saves clients’ time, energy and money (both in discounts and by eliminating or dramatically reducing medical and dental costs) and pays clients in promoting optimal health and because timeless education/instruction can be applied over and over indefinitely. Free articles are introductory and enlightenment educational articles posted on Dr. Smith’s website under “Articles by Dr. Smith.”
